

Civil Air Patrol Squadron Leadership School

Instructor Guide

HQ CAP/ETS
April 1999

SECTION 5

CONCEPT: Customs and Courtesies

APPROXIMATE TIME: 50 Minutes

OBJECTIVES:

Students will be able to:

1. Render a salute at the proper time and in the proper manner.
2. Demonstrate proper customs and courtesies.
3. Properly display the American flag.

MATERIALS:

CAPP 15-1, Standards, Customs, and Courtesies

Level I Video, Customs and Courtesies

US flag on pole

US flag without pole

Note: The Level 1 video is optional, but you may want to use it for review and reinforcement.

INTRODUCTION:

Ask the students to tell you some of the customs and courtesies that they recall from their level I training. List these on a chalkboard, flip chart or overhead transparency.

PURPOSE/RATIONALE

In this lesson, we will review the proper use of customs and courtesies.

INFORMATION

The instructional material in this guide is identical to the material in the student book. Review with students the proper times to render a salute. Have them turn to the page labeled "The Who, What, When, How and Where of Saluting". Also, review with students the proper way to honor the American flag. Refer students to the page labeled Respecting the Flag.

Have students turn to the salute checklist in their study guide. Using this checklist, demonstrate a proper salute for the students. Have the students practice saluting using this checklist. Have the students practice saluting one another.

THE WHO, WHAT, WHEN, HOW, AND WHERE OF SALUTING

Whom to salute

- The President of the United States
- Officers of Civil Air Patrol and officers in the Armed Forces of the United States
- Officers of friendly foreign nations
-

When to salute indoors

- When reporting in or out
- During an award ceremony
-

When to salute outdoors

Note: The term outdoors is defined as any area outside of a building including open porches, covered sidewalks, bus stops, covered or open entryways, and reviewing stands.

- When approaching a senior officer
- When in charge of a formation
- When approached by a vehicle with a flag or medal standard that identifies rank of an officer
- In respect to the American flag
- After a conversation with a senior officer

When not rendering a salute is appropriate

- When in formation (only the officer in charge renders the salute)
- When encumbered by items in hands, a verbal greeting is appropriate
- In emergency situations

Note: Judgment and common sense play an important role in determining if you should render a salute.

RESPECTING THE AMERICAN FLAG The National Anthem

Military-style uniform

Indoors

Remain silent
Stand at attention
Face the flag

Outdoors

Remain silent
Stand at attention
Face the flag (or music if flag is not visible)
Salute

Civilian clothes, non-military-style uniform

Indoors/outdoors

Remain silent
Stand at attention
Face the flag (or music)

Place hand over heart (remove headdress with right hand and hold it at the left shoulder with the right hand over the heart)

The Pledge of Allegiance

Military-style uniform

Indoors

Come to attention
Face the flag
Remain silent

Outdoors

Come to attention
Face the flag
Remain silent
Salute

Civilian clothes, nonmilitary-style uniform

Indoors/Outdoors

Come to attention
Face the flag

- a. If wearing a hat, remove the hat with right hand and place at left shoulder with right hand over heart.
- b. If not wearing a hat, place right hand over heart.

Recite pledge

Retreat

Note: Always outdoors on military installations

Military-style uniform

Remain silent

Face the flag (face the music if no flag)

Stand at "parade rest" during the sounding of Retreat

Come to attention and salute during the playing of National Anthem.

Civilian clothes, nonmilitary-style uniform

Remain silent

Stand at "parade rest" during the sounding of Retreat.

Come to attention

- a. If wearing a hat, remove hat with the right hand and hold at left shoulder with the right hand over the heart during playing of the playing of the National Anthem.
- b. Place right hand over heart during the playing of the National Anthem.

Other Situations

When in a car, the driver should come to a stop. Driver and passengers should remain silent during the playing of the National Anthem.

When a flag passes in a parade or flag ceremony

Military-style uniform--Salute when the flag comes within six paces and hold until the flag has passed six paces (outdoors only)

Nonmilitary clothing--Place right hand over heart when the flag comes within six paces and hold until the flag has passed six paces (indoors and outdoors)

SALUTE CHECKLIST

- Raise right hand smartly in most direct manner.
- Extend and join the forefingers.
- Place the thumb along the forefingers.
- Keep the palm flat.
- Face the palm toward the body.
- Tilt the palm slightly toward the face.
- Hold the upper arm horizontal, slightly forward of the body and parallel to the ground.
- Ensure the tip of the middle finger touches the outside corner of the right eyebrow or the front corner of the glasses.
- Keep the rest of the body at attention.
- To lower the salute, bring the arm smoothly and smartly downward retracting the path used to raise the arm.
- Return to the position of attention.

Copies of Slides

Included in your instructional materials are copies of the slides you will be using as an instructional aid. Review the materials. You may want to add additional slides.

 Squadron Leadership School

1

 Customs and Courtesies:
Saluting

*Who, When, What,
Where, and How to Salute*

2

 Who to Salute

- > The President of the United States
- > Officers in the Armed Forces of the United States
- > Officers of Civil Air Patrol
- > Officers of friendly foreign nations

3

 When to Salute

Indoors

- > When reporting in or out
- > During an award ceremony

4

 When to Salute

Outdoors

- > When approaching a senior officer
- > When in charge of a formation
- > When approached by a vehicle with a flag or medal standard that identifies rank of an officer
- > In respect to the American flag
- > After a conversation with a senior officer

5

 How to Salute

- > Raise right hand smartly in most direct manner
- > Extend and join the forefingers
- > Place the thumb along the forefinger, keeping the palm flat
- > Face the palm slightly toward the face
- > Tilt the palm slightly toward the face

6

How to Salute continued

- > Hold the upper arm horizontal, slightly forward of the body and parallel to the ground
- > Ensure the tip of the middle finger touches the outside corner of the right eyebrow or the front corner of the glasses
- > Keep the rest of the body at attention
- > Bring the arm smoothly downward
- > Return to the position of attention

Questions?

CUSTOMS AND COURTESIES

TO THE FLAG

RESPECTING THE AMERICAN FLAG

THE PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

- > STAND AT ATTENTION
- > FACE THE FLAG
- > IN UNIFORM: MAY REMAIN SILENT OR RECITE THE PLEDGE
- > CIVILIAN CLOTHES: REMOVE HAT (IF WORN)
PLACE HAND OVER HEART
RECITE PLEDGE

Retreat

Retreat is the lowering of the flag on a military institution at the end of the day.

- > Remain silent
- > In Uniform: Stand at parade rest during the sounding of Retreat, come to attention and salute during the playing of the National Anthem
- > Civilian Clothes: Stand at attention, remove hat, place right hand over heart

Questions

